

Game: Tom & Jerry-Catch me if you can

Learning focus for Jerry: intelligently running with the ball away from Tom
Learning focus for Tom: intelligent defending to win the ball back from Jerry

How to play

Children imitating Jerry (blues with the ball each) trying to run with the ball from one end zone to the other. 2 points will be awarded if enter smaller end zone area. 1 point will be awarded for enter bigger end zone area. Kids Imitating Tom (reds) upon winning the ball trying to get the ball into end zone they were facing with same points system.

Game levels (progressions)-children can move to next level Only when they feel ready and achieved success in previous level.

- Level 2: Running with the ball forward all the way-3 points will be awarded. The decision belongs to players
- Level 3: Tom & Jerry partnership-1v1
- Level 4: Play 3v3 in central zone and 1v1 in end zones. Team with the ball (blues) seek to enter end zone to create 2v1. If done so by running with the ball and score-goal will count double. When score or ball goes out of play game restart in end zone the goal was score.

Decisions, challenges & questions within the game

- Why Jerry need to use eyes for?
- What Jerry need to be aware of and why?
- When to enter bigger and when smaller end zone-can Jerry recognize moments to make correct decision?
- When to run forward and when not to-Jerry ability to confused Tom (the defender)
- How intelligent defending looks like-Tom ability to win the ball and have the ball at the same time
- Individual challenges based on children needs and development

Jerry losing the ball rarely and is hard to catch.
 Jerry loves the ball and able to keep it against more than 1 Tom

Jerry show ability to change direction and confused Tom on more than one occasion
 Jerry and Tom can stop and start fluently

Jerry find different ways to beat Tom (solving problems)
 Tom show determination to win the ball back cleanly
 Jerry is creative with the ball

Tom & Jerry play rock paper scissors.
 Whoever lost share experiences about the game i.e. what went well?